

7.1.1 Measures initiated by the Institution for the promotion of Constitutional values and gender equity during the last five years.

The College promotes Constitutional values with full spirit. As part of the course Constitutional Law, Labour Laws, Human Rights Law are taught as core subjects and given prime importance during the course.

In fulfilling the Constitutional values set out in the Preamble and Fundamental Duties, the institution organizes activities like awareness programmes under the aegis of Legal Aid Cell for providing access to justice to the destitute. The Institution is a co-education and has been providing fair opportunities to girl students to take part actively in the curricular and co-curricular activities. The students actively participate in these activities, wherein they learn, understand and implement the goals set out in the Constitution. Newly admitted students are imparted on the gender issues during the Orientation Program each year. Some of the girl students have participated in University level sports and curricular activities. The Institution endeavored to sensitize the female staff and students to equally participate in curricular and co-curricular activities throughout the year. The institution celebrates International Women's Day every year by inviting eminent personalities to commemorate the women in leadership to inspire the girl students and make them understand the role of women in society.

There is a separate room for female students with all necessary facilities. CCTV cameras are installed at proper locations like class rooms, library, corridors and prominent places of the campus for continuous surveillance of the premises for maintaining safety of the girl students and staff in the institution. The institution has Prevention of Sexual Harassment Committee for dealing with sexual harassment complaints. The institution has also constituted an Anti-Ragging Committee, Student Grievances Redressal Committee to ensure safety and to protect the interests of students. During the orientation programme students are well informed about the respect and honour towards gender equity. During important Days related to gender equity like International Women's Day, Constitution day, institution invites Women Achievers, Successful women entrepreneurs, legal practitioners, judges are invited as role models to be emulated by the students. The institution constituted Prevention of Sexual Harassment Committee, Anti ragging Committee and Mentor Mentee Committee to ensure the safety, welfare and empowerment of girl students and female faculty. Institution has promoted the cause of gender equity and has avoided gender discrimination/preference, through its various cells/committees as well as during the conduct of programmes/functions. The Mentorship system adopted by the institution which sensitizes mentees of each mentor about gender equity and takes special care of female students.
